

Social Corporate Responsibility

Elikon Graphic Arts has established Corporate Social Responsibility as an integral and key element of its strategic planning, taking responsible initiatives and implementing specific policies regarding the provision of high quality product standards to its customers and its sustainable development, for the benefit of society and its employees.

Our company, in the context of its contribution to society as a whole, takes care of its staff and working environment, the protection of the environment, the social and cultural life of the local community.

The Company respects and supports internationally recognized human rights and implements policies of fair reward, meritocracy and equal opportunities for all its human resources, without any discrimination and with respect for diversity. At the same time, it offers opportunities for development through continuous training and systematic evaluation of its staff.

It is of great importance for the Company to provide a healthy and safe working environment.

At the Company we aim to leave the least possible environmental footprint and a healthy planet for future generations, ensuring the optimal management of natural resources and the promotion of the recycling of various materials.

The Company is next to the local community and responds sensitively to issues that concern it, having developed a close relationship based on dialogue and cooperation. The Company plans and implements actions that meet the basic needs of society, in matters of work, development, education, health, environment, and culture. It encourages volunteering and supports sustainable initiatives development of the local community.

Elikon Graphic Arts is committed to complying with National Law and all applicable laws, which the company endorses.

Ταύρου 19-21
177 78 Ταύρος
T: 210 4829 500
F: 210 4829 560
info@elikon-print.gr
www.elikon-print.gr